CATARRH OF STOMACH
CURED BY PE-RU-NA.Miss Genevive May, 1817 S. Meridian St., Indianapolis, Ind., Member Second High School Alumni Ass'n, writes:*"Peruna is the finest regulator of a disordered stomach I have ever found.
It certainly deserves high praise, for it is skillfully prepared.""I was in a terrible condition from a neglected case of catarrh of the stomach.
My food had long ceased to be of any good and only distressed me after eating. I was nauseated, had heartburn and headaches, and felt run down completely. But in two weeks after I took Peruna I was a changed person. A few bottles of the medicine made a great change, and in three months my stomach was cleared of catarrh, and my entire system in a better condition."*— ry Wilson, who was arrested as an attendant, was held on a bond of $50.— Pensacola Journal.A. M. Watson, city marshal of Chipley, was shot and fatally wounded at six o'clock Wednesday evening by a negro known as Dock Peterson, who made his escape. Peterson was in the city jail charged with shooting a woman ten days ago. Watson went to the jail to give the negro his supper.

When he opened the door the negro fired upon him with a revolver that someone had smuggled in to him, the ball taking effect in the neck near the collar bone. After shooting the marshal the negro stepped past his prostrate body and made his escape. He is being pursued.

The Boss Worm Medicine.

H. P. Kump, druggist, Leighton, Ala., writes: "One of my customers had a child which was sick, and threw up all food, could retain nothing on its stomach. He bought one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, and it brought up 119 worms from the child.
It's the boss worm medicine in the world." White's Cream Vermifuge is also the children's tonic. It improves their digestion and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to the health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

THE APPOINTING POWER.

A Story of President Grant and an Obstinate Subordinate.General Grant's generosity to his foes, his many private and official kindnesses to the widows and orphans of Confederate soldiers, is an old tale, but it bears repetition in the form of an incident which Helen D. Longstreet gives in "Lee and Longstreet at High Tide."The widow of a Confederate officer applied to the postoffice department to be appointed postmistress in a small southern town. As she heard nothing of her application, she went to Washington to press it. She was unable to move the authorities at the postoffice department and was about to go home in despair when a friend suggested that it might be worth while for her to see the president.With much effort she summoned courage and appeared at the White House. The president received her in a most friendly manner and after hearing her story took her application and wrote a strong but brief indorsement on the back of it. She hurried in triumph to the postoffice department.The official to whom she presented the application frowned and pondered over it for some time and then wrote under the president's indorsement, "This being a fourth class office, the president does not have the appointing power."The application was handed back to her, and she went away in deep distress and was again preparing to return home when another friend told her by all means to take the paper back to the president, so that he might see how his indorsement had been received. When the president read it he wrote under the last indorsement, "While the president does not have the appointing power in this office, he has the appointment of the postmaster general," and, summoning his secretary, President Grant directed him to accompany the lady to the department and in person deliver her application to the postmaster general.
She received the commission before she left the office.Cheerfully Recommended for Rheumatism.O. G. Higbee, Danville, Ill., writes, Dec. 2, 1901: "About two years ago I was laid up for four months with rheumatism. I tried Ballard's Snow Liniment; one bottle cured me. I can cheerfully recommend it to all suffering from like affliction." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Nightcaps and Insomnia.

All one has to do in order to secure a good night's rest is to wear a nightcap. We are assured that the great secret is to keep the head warm, and then one may sleep like a top.—London Draper.

No Excuse.

Snobbs family? He—No. It's too bad there isn't. It would give them a legiti-mate excuse for some of their actions.
—Detroit Free Press.No Benefit No Cost.If you are weak and worn-out—if you are nervous, irritable, have headache, backache, neuralgia, or periodical pains, it is because you have exhausted your nerve force.If you cannot sleep, and are thus robbed of the rest which nature demands for the restoration of mental and physical vigor, your system will continue to run down.Dr. Miles' Nervine restores vitality by soothing and strengthening the nervous system, thus inducing refreshing sleep, and imparting strength and vigor to all the organs of the body.There are very few instances where Nervine will not benefit; if not, your druggist will refund the money."When I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine I had a very sour stomach, with pain extending far around on my left side—attended with extreme nervousness. I dreaded to have night come, as it was impossible for me to sleep. Everything I ate distressed me. Before I had finished one bottle of Nervine there was such a change that my husband bought six more, which has restored me to health."

MRS. JENNIE SUMMERS.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.
